Kristin Stewart also has an Erdos number of 5. She coauthored with B.H Joshi, who has an Erdos number of 4 as shown by the chart above. This would give Kristen Stewart an Erdos number one greater than his.

The Bacon-Erdos number of Kristen Stewart can be obtained by combining both her scores from her Bacon and Erdos numbers yielding 7. Kristen Stewart has a Bacon-Erdos number of 7.

I believe Dr. Nelson saw a link to the article that Kristen Stewart coauthored with Joshi, as it is recent(Jan 2017), and was surprised that she coauthored a scientific article about artificial intelligence- saw it was a great example to illustrate the principle of a Bacon-Erdos number.
